In Mrs. Hibbs Death---County Loses One of Its Oldest as those who will not see, but it W. B. Rankins, Fords Ferry Residents--Came From Meade Connty Seventy Years Ago.

SERIOUS ILLNESS WAS UF ONLY A FEW DAYS DURATION.

Last Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock Mrs. Mary Lucile Hibbs died at her residence on Salem street in this city, in her seventyfifth year. Her children were all with her when the end came, Mr. J. M. Barnes, of Tolu, having been summoned several days before and the others, all making their home with her, being Mrs. Lemmah Nunn wife of C. S. Nunn, and Misses Ninna and Della Barnes. Her sister, Mrs. Sarah Guess, the widow of Jose Guess, of Tolu, was also present, and her daughter, Miss Ruth Guess, body politic I shall be greatly dis-Miss Mary Coffield, her grand daughter, who has lived with her appointed. for several years was also with her grand mother when she died. Mrs. Hibbs had been in feeble health all summer but her serious illness was of only a few days duration, but was of such a serious nature that her family and friends had been prepared for her death and expecting it for several days.

Besides her relatives mentioned, she is survived by one is expected to preach the Introduc brother, A. P. Shanks, of Gold Dust, Tenn., and a sister, Mrs. tory Sermon. Hampton church and Gordon S. Flanary, of Texas.

Mrs. Hibbs was a daughter of Mentor Shanks who moved to this county from Brandenburg, Ky., seventy years ago when she was a little girl. Her mother was a Miss Yeakey and she was related to all that large family in this county. H. M. Cook and Mrs. Isabel Flanary, of this city, are her first cousins

She was born at Brandenburg, Meade Co., April 2nd, 1834. Her first marriage was to Wm. Barnes, April 20th, 1852, soon after his return from California whither he had gone in 1849 when gold was discovered there. Mr. Barnes died in 1887, and his widow married J. L. Hibbs, of Birdsville, Ky., Aug. 14th, 1895, Mr. Hibbs died ten years ago.

Mrs. Hibbs was a lovely Christian character and a woman of great refinement. She was modest and retiring in manner and was beloved by a wide circle of friends.

Her membership was with the Baptist church here, but was originally at Dunn Springs, which is near the old Shanks place where her father first located after moving to this county. The funeral was held at the residence Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock and interment at the new cemetery, Rev. J. S. Henry officiating.

Rev. J. F. Price held a fine meeting at Brown's school house, Summer Co., Tenn., and organized a church with thirty-four members. He went from there to Boiling Springs. There was a great revival at this church. The people say that it is the greatest revival the church has had for years. The meeting continued only a week. There were fourteen professions, all young ladies and gentlemen. Bro Price was assisted at Boiling Springs by J. C. Other clouds rose above our horizon threatening our detruction. Congress passed into the hands of those who obeyed the will of the powerful masters; millions of acres of our public land were given away; millions more of rich pasture lands were seized by the cattle kings; then came the timber thieves whose holdings of to day would if made into lumber build all of the world anew; oil lands and coal lands were gobbled with the same rapacity that marked the other steals.

Next came the granting of franchise, and the chartering of corporations, which seemingly timid at first on the rulers of our proud country, learned to water their stock, this being permitted by the courts they grew bolder, seized the reins of the government in several atates, which they still retain and use for their personal gain and the furtherance of their schemes. THE AMERICAN SOCIETY

A FRIEND OF ALL.

When farmers, smarting under wrongs they could not entirely understand, realized they must organize so as to meet organization with organization, they very naturally looked no further than to the business men they knew for the source of their trouble. The idea did not occur to them that the prices of their own products might be too low and unfair-It has been demonstrated also that ble, that the prices of farm products quired to pay.

T speculative forces, but it will always be remunerative to the producers because the profit revert to them instead of flowing into the coffers of those "who toil not, neither do they spin." and yet be no more costly to consumers. This can be done, the society claims, and has proven it, not by withholding needed supplies, but by keeping the market supplied only as actual demand calls for it, stringing it along thruout the season instead of pouring whole crops upon the market at times of maturity to become playthings of the bulls and bears of speculation and the means of extorting unfair prices from con-

This theory of farm organization and accomplishment of it job should place, the Society of Equity in the most friendly relations with the legitimate business interests of the country, and they with it. Indeed the society has fully proven its friendliness by opening its doors to business men, inviting them to membership, welcoming them to its councils, and working hand in hand with them in building up home interests. The Society Equity has no secrets from the world, its propositions are plain business ones. Its success makes farmers better off financially, increases their ambitions, refines their tastes, multiplies their wants, gives them the ability to satisfy them and this makes them more abundant purchas-

The merchant, therefore, or professional man, or any body who is unfriendly to the society is too narrow in his views and selfish in his actions, and he is blocking the path to his own best interests. In many localities the business and professional men understand this and have become members of the society and are helping to lead it on to maturity and to success. In others they give it every assistance by counsel and

In such localities it takes eminently the proper form-that of pure mutuality of interests, leading to 'equity in all the business relations of life." And so it may be in every ocality. - Farmers Problems.

Attend The Farmers' Institute.

The members of our farmers' organ izations throughout the county will have a good opportunity to show appreciation of up-to-date methods of farming by attending the "Farmer's Institute" which meets at Marion, Aug. 7th, and 8th.

This meeting is held under the aus pices of the State Dept. of Agriculture which provides three men of experience to conduct the same. The Insti-tute is for the benefit of all who will attend and is absolutely without money and without price. The state pays all the expenses of the meeting but since the state draws its revenues from us must attend to get our moneys worth nounced and as the table groaning I regret to say that the attendance at previous annual institutes at Marion een small-not enough have to arouse the enthusiasm of the speakers or to justify the expense of the meetings. am glad this has not been the case in other sections of our state and in other states of our union.
